

Sudbury Souvenir Guide: Take Home a Piece of the North

True North Made

1349 Lasalle Boulevard (Inside the New Sudbury Centre)

Located in the New Sudbury Centre, this shop features goods made across Northern Ontario, from home décor and accessories to gourmet treats and apparel. All products are proudly local.

Joyful Home Inc.

240 Regional Road 24, Lively

Based in Lively, this studio offers small-batch soy candles, bath and body products, and a selection of local artisan goods, all beautifully packaged and perfect for gifting.

Positive Inception

1212 Lasalle Boulevard

This uplifting brand spreads messages of optimism and inclusion. Their “Hometown Sudbury” gear makes for meaningful and comfortable souvenirs.

Sudbury Artisans Collective

43 Elm St #110

For beautiful, locally made souvenirs and gifts, stop by Sudbury Artisans Collective downtown. You’ll find handmade items, Indigenous art, jewelry, textiles, and more, perfect for taking a piece of Sudbury home with you.

Huckleberries Chocolatiers

110 Durham Street

A downtown staple for handcrafted Belgian chocolates, truffles, and specialty treats. Their artisan confections are perfect to bring home, if you don’t eat them first.

Nickel City Cheese

3888 Regional Road 15, Chelmsford

Based in Chelmsford, this small-batch cheese producer offers 14 different cheese curd flavours! It has a variety of artisan cheeses and local pantry goods. Gift boxes are available, or create your own with crackers, spreads, and sweets. You can also find Nickel City Cheese curds at Tarini Bros or a local Independent Grocer.

Amberhill Gallery

601 Kathleen Street

An artist-run space providing Canadian artists and small businesses opportunities to showcase and sell their work year-round.

Sudbury Market

40 Elm Street (inside Elm Place)

Visit Saturdays at Elm Place (year-round) or outdoors at York and Paris Streets on Thursdays (seasonally). Shop handmade crafts, fresh baked goods, preserves, and locally grown produce, a great place to meet the makers.

Sudbury
2025

Ontario 55+
Summer Games
Jeux d'été de l'Ontario 55+

DISCOVER | DÉCOUVRIR
Sudbury